Sacramento ranked, in February 2024, as California's 4th most diverse city and the 23rd most diverse city in the U.S. As California's sixth largest city and its capitol, Sacramento is defined by offering affordable housing, farmers' markets, and a lively arts and music scene. - Consulting with judges about significant issues or proposed voucher reductions;
- Reviewing CJA funding requests with input from the Circuit's Case Budgeting Attorney to recommend to judges whether requested hours and rates are consistent with CJA guidelines and reasonable;
- Helping judges with improving efficiencies, e.g., helping Panel attorneys coordinate duplicative motions, streamlining discovery review (e.g., using a shared coordinating discovery attorney), and coordinating investigation and other pretrial needs consistent with privilege, client loyalty, and District guidelines;
- Maintaining knowledge of the CJA payment database program (eVoucher), proposing improvements, and implementing updates; and
- Collecting and analyzing data and reports regarding CJA voucher payments, procedures, and panel management, offering recommendations when appropriate.

- Assisting, as needed, with making prompt counsel appointments for federal court indigent defendants, witnesses, targets, etc.;

- Remaining current with developments within the Circuit and across the country, as well as evolving legislation about the CJA Panel, and updating Panel attorneys and judges, as appropriate;
